

WELLERS CORPORATE IMMIGRATION SERVICE

Do you require assistance for:

- Bringing in employees from overseas?
- Ensuring existing foreign employees are able to stay with your business?

Like many businesses in the UK, you may already employ EU and other nationals or seek to bring in skilled and experienced overseas talent to give you a competitive edge in your market. However UK immigration law is not only complex, it also frequently changes without warning. For that reason it is important to have a specialist immigration lawyer to support your HR team.

With applications to work in the UK you really do need to get it right first time. Without the internal expertise, familiar with this field of law, you risk substantial delays and extra cost in bringing in and keeping the best talent for your organisation.

At Wellers Immigration Service we have extensive experience in dealing with complicated visa applications. With our experience comes a deep understanding and appreciation of the variety of situations that are faced by our clients during the application and appeals process.

The complete service

We are able to support your team with advice and guidance or take on applications for visas or residence from start to finish. Our services include:

- Building the correct profile for your business to make applications easier
- Defining and completing all documentation required for applications
- Compiling supporting evidence required by the Home Office
- Briefing and preparation for compliance visits
- Extending existing visas

We will provide you with realistic timescales and regular updates of work undertaken so that you will know how each case is progressing.

An experienced team

At Wellers we pride ourselves in providing accurate, up to date advice and excellent service from a fully qualified immigration solicitor and an experienced support team, able to take on the many elements of the application process for you.

The immigration team at Wellers is headed by Rosalind Nunoo who has over ten years' experience in all aspects of immigration and human rights cases and also European legislation and how it impacts UK immigration law. Instructing Wellers Immigration Service means that you can eliminate much of the work required and many of the delays that can often be associated with applications to work in the UK.

If your team could use extra support on immigration and visa applications.
